The Black Hawk War

The Sauk and the Meskwaki

Name: _____ Period: _____ Date: _____

WHAT I CAN DO TODAY I can read primary sources about The Black Hawk War, weigh who made each one and why, and use evidence to answer historical questions.

Directions. Read the lesson on the Black Hawk War one section at a time. For each section, answer in your own words: retell it in 2–3 sentences, name the single key idea, and note one word you figured out or one question you still have

THE SOURCES

NOW READ THE REAL THING — Primary source: Black Hawk's surrender speech, 1832

> "I am a man and you are another. … We did not expect to conquer the whites; they had too many houses and too many men. I took up the hatchet, for my part, to revenge injuries which my people could no longer endure. … He has done nothing for which an Indian ought to be ashamed. He has fought for his countrymen, against white men who came, year after year, to cheat them and take away their lands."

Black Hawk, at his surrender, 1832 — recorded in Frank E. Stevens, The Black Hawk War (1903).
